VOLUME XX

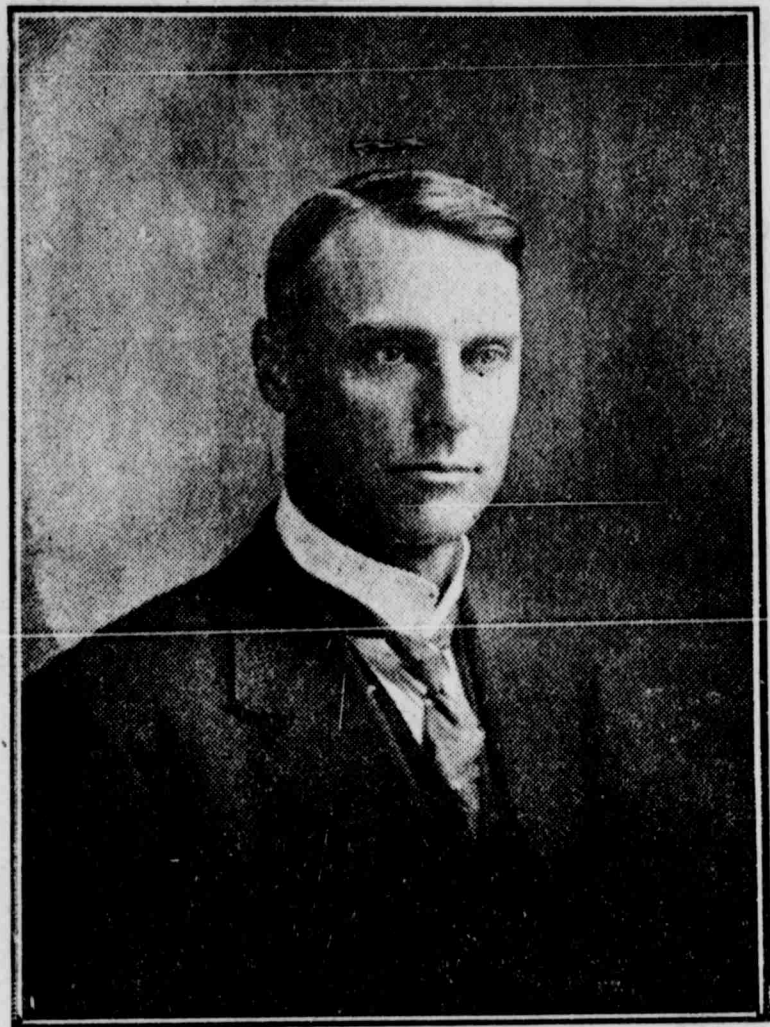

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1910.

NUMBER 15

IMMENSE CROWD

Hears Hon. A. Floyd Byrd at the Court House in this City Monday Afternoon---An Able Speech Was Delivered and the Interest Was Intense.

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY SEEMS CERTAIN.

Hon. A. Floyd Byrd, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, delivered an able address here Monday. The Court House was well filled and his remarks made a fine impression upon his hearers. He showed up his opponent's record as a stand pater in fine style and furnished additional evidence regarding his title of "Promisary John." Mr. Langley was invited to be present, a division of time being guaranteed, and while he was here the day before, as usual, the invitation was not accepted. The people, however, want men to fight in the open, and are tired of Johnnie's "Gum-shoe" methods.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Ray Zellman, of this city, to Mr. Victor Rose, of Detroit, Mich. Suburban Couple Wedded.

To-day (Wednesday) October 19, Thomas H. Carr, Jr., son of T. H. Carr, Sr., and Miss Anna Rushford, daughter of Fred Rushford, were united in marriage at the Presbyterian parsonage, the Rev. H. G. Moody officiating.

The groom is 21 years of age and the bride 25. Both parties live on the Grassy pike and are well known and popular.

Talk Four

Duty is one thing. Desire is another. With most men they go hand in hand so far as one's family is concerned. As a rule by the time a man reaches the period when he must admit that he is no longer able to hold his own, he is preciously anxious to take care of his own.

There are men who come upon this Duty-Desire feeling when it's about the most appalling contemplation imaginable! You'll admit that it might have all been averted, that it was sinning to have put off so inevitable a contingency.

Duty and Desire from a combination which Life Insurance covers as a hen covereth her brood. The only feathers out of the wings of shelter are your spells of forgetfulness. Every time you put off this matter a feather drops out. Hoffman doesn't speak of it ominously, but this is a very serious proposition. Every time Napoleon started out upon the sea from St. Helena he sighed "If!"

Life Insurance, as Hoffman talks it, is truly romantic; but it's the romance which carries a man homeward and shows him the twin pictures, Duty and Despair!

The Missouri Girl.

One of the strongest endorsements of Fred Raymond's famous comedy The Missouri Girl, is the fact that it is probably the best self-advertised play in existence. For the past fifteen years this excellent comedy has been touring the United States and Canada continually, with from one to three companies, and in that time has built up a reputation that is the envy of the entire theatrical profession and this, strictly on its merits. At Tabb Opera House Friday night, Oct. 21.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their sympathy and kindness during the sickness and death of our baby, Lucile.

POOL FAILS.

The 1910 Pool of Burley Tobacco Declared Off at Lexington Last Saturday.

By a resolution adopted by a unanimous vote at Lexington Saturday night, the District Board of the Burley Tobacco Society officially declared off the pool of the 1910 crop. The pool will have a technical existence only until the individual growers themselves have acquiesced in the action. This acquiescence will probably have effect in the sale of a vast quantity of tobacco, as the growers are released of all obligation.

OTHER POOL ALSO CLOSES.

Passing with the Burley pool also is the independent pool launched in Georgetown last Wednesday. By a declaration sent to the meeting, the founders of the new movement concur in the course froced upon the Burley Board. The statement was prepared and delivered after those who signed it had a conference with Congressman J. C. Cantrill and other supporters.

FUTURE POLICY OF SOCIETY.

In a statement prefacing the resolution, President LeBus outlined what may be the policy of the Burley Tobacco Society. He was applauded when he referred to a possible cut-out of the 1911 crop, and said that those in the 1909 pool should demand a fair price for the 1909 crop even if they had to hold it.

The only speech of a session continuing until mid-night, was delivered by Col. Joel B. Fort. He made a very eloquent presentation of the position of the growers, saying that they had been forced to retreat, but that they would never consider surrender.

CALLED IN EXTRA SESSION.

The call for the extraordinary session was unexpected. In explanation of the call, President LeBus stated that the flooding of the country by trust buyers and their success, had decided several members of the Executive Committee Friday that to release those in the pool was the only just course. It was agreed to wait until Saturday for further developments. Reports continued discouraging, and the Executive Committee resolved to call the District Board together.

Members were notified by wire, and over thirty members reached Lexington by evening trains.
